

Introduction

A foundation for life is laid in childhood. What and how a child is taught influences him or her both for time and eternity. Boys and girls are not only educated in their school classroom, but also in their church, in their home and by their company. All these influences can have an impact for either good or bad. It is essential, therefore, that our children are diligently taught the truth in an attitude of love.

Many underestimate the power of God's Word to transform lives. It is quick and powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword (Heb 4v12); it makes us wise unto salvation (2 Tim 3v15); and it keeps us from sinning against God (Psalm 119v11). Boys and girls need to experience this transforming power in their lives too.

God wants Christian parents to lead their children by godly teaching and godly example based on His Word (cf. Deut 6v4-7). It is our responsibility to diligently teach the scriptures to our children in an attitude of love. They have a God-given ability to learn and retain facts in such a way to influence their lives. We need the truth to influence them for good. It is my desire that the riches of God's Word would be hidden deep in the hearts and minds of boys and girls. Hence the reason I have compiled this series of Bible verses to memorize with them.

Let me emphasize that the Bible verses found in these lists are intended as a springboard only. They cover a great variety of teaching concerning God, His salvation, and our responsibility to Him. However, this is not an exhaustive list of the only Bible verses that one needs to know. Read God's Word with your children every day and encourage them to learn other portions of it as well. Pray that as they memorize God's Word that the Lord will hide it deep within their hearts and use it to keep them pure and from evil.

Use this series of Bible verse lists by stages rather than by sticking rigidly to the ages that I have designed it for. Let the child learn at his or her own pace. Say a verse over with your child at least 10 times every day. Talk with them as to what each verse means. I strongly advise that you teach the verses in their context, especially for the older children. It is most important that they learn God's Word and its meaning.

This series can easily be adapted for use by adults. Just simply go through the initial stages more quickly than advised for children. Many of the verses in the initial stages should be familiar to you anyhow. Of course, if you are using this series of Bible verses lists with your children, you will find the benefit of learning with them!

Stage 1

Up to Age 4

You may be inclined to think that memory work with this age group is a waste of time. I challenge you to teach the scripture texts to these infants by means of repetition. The aim of this section is to familiarize little minds with scripture. Please note that I have purposely included John 3v16 and Romans 3v23 twice as they are so foundational to the gospel.

I recommend that you spend 4 weeks learning one text. Repeat it over with your child at least 10 times every day. Once you have completed the list of 36 texts, revise them by spending a fortnight on each text.

Stage 2

Ages 4-6

At this age children commence school. They become a little more independent. They learn to trust what others tell and teach them about life. The words, "My Daddy says..." and "My Mummy says..." may be replaced with, "My teacher says..." or "My friend says..." It is most important that they realize that what God says is more important than what anyone else says.

Search the Word Bible Memory Verses

Stage 6

Ages 13-14

Young teenagers have many questions on their minds. Some of these questions may result from unchristian ideas that they have encountered. In any case, they search for answers.

I believe the Bible is the key to the genuine answers that they seek. I trust that their questions will not cause them to forsake the faith but, rather, may they be guided by the Holy Spirit to find scriptural answers that will help them defend their faith.

Conclusion

Where do I end? The wealth and beauty of scripture cannot be exhausted. Meditating on God's Word has blessed my own soul as I compiled this list. Likewise, I trust you have been blessed memorising these verses whether alone or with your children.

There are so many verses of scripture – all of which would be valuable to learn. So keep learning. Choose other verses and portions of God's Word to memorise. Revise what you have learnt already.

Pray God will bring His Word to your remembrance exactly when you need it. In situations of temptation, when witnessing, and for encouragement may you discover the blessing of having God's Word hidden in your heart.

The wisdom and guidance that God gives through His Word cannot be surpassed. In the midst of all this world's problems and the pressures of life may your prayer to God constantly be: "Order my steps in Thy word: and let not any iniquity have dominion over me." (Psalm 119v133).
